

I just watched the video of the festival of stars and awards. WOW what a great job under such adverse conditions. I loved it. I especially loved the opening anthem and the fact that I saw so many familiar names from years past and how they have grown. There were also many family names where younger siblings are now taking up the charge. I really want to congratulate Mark and the Board on a job well done.

Thanks so much for everything! The online concert was beautiful! Thank you for all the hard work.

- Nadine

Thank you for organizing this event, pivoting to an online format, and persevering through these uncertain times. It gives kids a purpose and something to strive for, and a way to find a spot of joy. Thank you. ❤️

- Bethany

This is the first virtual festival for me and I am so impressed how you have made this work. Your communication is amazing.

- Margot

Thank you for all the work you've done so that our music festival could take place during this pandemic. Your effort is greatly appreciated.

- Seonwha

I'm so glad we were at least able to do this this year! My students really enjoyed this version and it gave them a goal to work towards! Thank you for all you do!

- Joyce

Thank you very much for all of your efforts. It is so important for students to have a forum for presenting their music, whether in-person or virtually!

- Jenny

Thanks for putting on the festival despite the pandemic. The kids really stepped up and continued some lessons even though it was difficult to do things virtually. We really appreciate all the work the committee puts into the festival.
